Salem A. Abou Halloun (Lebanese, born 12 February 1976) and his wife Christine M. El Khoury (Lebanese, born 21 September 1979) are both architects graduated 2001 and 2004 from The Lebanese University, Faculty of Fine Arts and Architecture 2, Beirut. Salem has a number of unpublished books such as 365 Towers and 100 Villas and others. They have both been part of major projects in Lebanon and the Middle East.

Ever since 2004, Salem and Christine Abou Halloun have been working on perspectives' projects which then developed into 5 unpublished books: 365 Towers, 100 Villas, 100 Ideas, 50 Museums, 50 Malls.

The studio is born from a vision of a better future combining the creative spirit of the principals with the efficiency of delivery and reliability of a major architectural firm. It is a boutique studio from projects such as schools, universities, hotels, luxury condominium towers, retail centers and office buildings to specialized projects such as museums, convention centers, airports and transportation centers, bank headquarters. Gathering all the inspiration, invention, experience and knowledge in 5 architectural design catalogs.

The target from these concepts is to:

1- Publish 5 architectural books in digital and physical copies for use in academic field as references for students, researchers and instructors. In addition to that, they would serve as a distinguished addition to the modern library of architecture.

2- Build our projects in renowned cities. Since every perspective has the ultimate destiny of being realized in large cities...

3- Digital games have become a basic field in the modern world. Millions of dollars are being invested on designing and developing virtual cities for video games. Our perspectives can function as valuable assets in such video games for all ages.

4- Hollywood and Bollywood movies also use virtual cities for filming and producing large scale movies. Our perspectives, being both modern and creative, can serve as ideal locations for such large production movies.

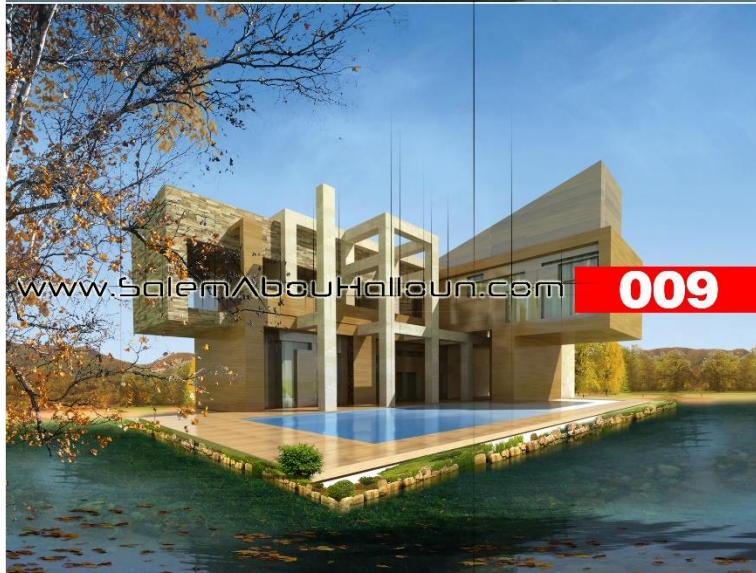

5-Our designs are combined into five architectural books, which hopefully will allow us to enter the Guinness Book of World Records, with the right support and guidance from the proper references.

All our perspective projects have been combined to form one project, AVA or AVA city, the futuristic city waiting to be realized and executed by investors and developers around the world.
